

KENNEDY SPACE CENTER VISITOR COMPLEX

Extends Military Offer through April In honor of the brave men and women who serve and protect our country, Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex has announced extending the new "Salute to America's Heroes" offer to U.S. military personnel through April 30, 2010. Active duty military service members, including activated members of the National Guard and Reservists, will enjoy complimentary admission to the Visitor Complex and discounted ticket offers for family members and friends. Tickets are valid through April 30, 2010. Complimentary tickets for active military members and discounted tickets for family and friends are available at participating military base ITT travel offices. Active military members must present a valid military photo I.D. Complimentary admission includes the new Shuttle Launch Experience, the Kennedy Space Center Tour, 3D IMAX® space films, Astronaut Encounter and the U.S. Astronaut Hall of Fame®, featuring historic spacecraft, simulator rides and the world's largest collection of personal astronaut mementos. Admission tickets are valid for a second day free at the Visitor Complex, if used within a seven-day period. Active military members will also receive a 10 percent discount on retail and food items at the Visitor Complex. For more information, call 321-449-4400. POC: Reservation Department, 321-449-4400
